

School Open Days

Hi all, it's that exciting time of year where you are beginning the process of the searching for a school for your child to start in September 2025. In today's Parenting Post I am going to share a links where you can find the open days/sessions from local schools within the area. Some schools haven't released their dates as of yet so it's good to keep an eye out following the link, the tours take place between October-January.

The portal for applying for your child's school place is open from Friday 1st November 2024- Wednesday 15th January 2025.

It is recommended to attend school open days/evenings to help inform your decision making. Please find the listed Schools within the area and follow the link to see their open days times and make contact through each individual school to book a viewing. If you are unsure of local schools near you; please follow the link where you can find your child's Catchment School here-
